Prerequisites

Latin, beginners' course I, 7,5 hp (0LA011)

Expected learning outcomes

After completing the course, the student should be able to

- explain and use morphology, syntax and vocabulary at an advanced level,
- explain and discuss texts – including original texts – from (primarily) classical Latin, in addition to Latin stemming from post-classical antiquity,
- present a general outline of the linguistic, text historical and factual background of the selected original texts.

Content

The course includes the following components:

- follow-up of remaining elements in Latin morphology
- systematic and continual review of the most common syntax structures and some comments regarding surviving qualities in modern languages
- a short introduction to texts and authors as well as to epochs and cultural history
- follow-up questions and discussions about the linguistic and factual content of the texts.

Type of Instruction

Teaching is web-based.

Teaching may also be offered on-campus in the form of classroom lessons and lectures.

Examination

The course is assessed with the grades Fail (U), Pass (G) or Pass with Distinction (VG).

Course Evaluation

At the end of the course, a written course evaluation is performed and compiled into a report. The evaluation report is available to students and is filed and stored according to departmental regulations.
