Prerequisites

General entry requirements.

Expected learning outcomes

On completion of the course, students should:

- be able to account for different drama and theatre educational methods;
- be able to plan and conduct drama work within pre-school, after-school recreation centres as well as schools for all ages;
- be able to plan and carry out theatre projects from ideas to finished performances;
- conduct a group in drama activities.

Content

Module 1 15 credits

Module 2 15 credits

Type of Instruction

Teaching is built on teacher/student directed elements where great attention is paid to students' active roles, as well as their ability to utilize teaching aids. Work with children's groups occurs continuously throughout the course.

Examination

The course is assessed with the grades Fail (U), Pass (G) or Pass with Distinction

(VG).

In order to pass the course, students need to meet the expected learning outcomes. Examination occurs through various forms, individually and in groups, such as leadership training, didactic papers and literature seminars.

A resit for some of the course elements may only be offered during the course. For other elements a resit is offered within six weeks (within the framework of regular terms) and the number of resits is limited to five (in accordance with the Higher Education Ordinance 6 chap. 21§).

Course Evaluation

At the end of the course, a written course evaluation is performed and compiled into a report. The evaluation report is available to students and is filed and stored according to departmental regulations.

Other

Course students need to pay an obligatory fee for working materials.
