Content

The course contains the following:

- entrepreneurial and innovative perspectives
- contextualization of concepts
- problematization and an opportunity driven gaze
- problem solving and value creation
- models and tools for developing organizations and activities

Type of Instruction

The education is based on lectures, seminars and group assignments. Mandatory parts are stated in the schedule

Examination

The course is assessed with the grades A, B, C, D, E, Fx or F.

Examination is carried out through group- and seminar assignments, written assignment and an oral presentation.

The grade A constitutes the highest grade on the scale and the remaining grades follow in descending order where the grade E is the lowest grade on the scale that will result in a pass. The grade F means that the student's performance is assessed as fail.

After each regular examination there will be at least one new examination in close proximity to the date the results of the regular exam were posted. A minimum of five occasions for written exams will be offered in relation to the syllabus to which the student was accepted. Usually three occasions per academic year are offered. Students that fail reports can complement after instructions from the examiner to obtain a pass grade.

Grading criteria for the A–F scale are communicated in writing to the student by the start of the course/module at the latest, as well as how grades on separate elements of examination are weighed to a final course grade.

Course Evaluation

During the implementation of the course or in close connection to the course a course evaluation is to be carried out. Result and analysis of the course evaluation is to be presented as feedback both to the students who have completed the course and to the students who are to participate on the course the next time it is offered. The course evaluation is to be carried out anonymously.
