Type of Instruction

Teaching is carried out as distance learning with help from a learning platform and consists of self-studies based on instructions from the course coordinator and participation in web-based group discussions. The course requires access to a computer and the internet. No compulsory meetings on campus are included.

Examination

The course is assessed with the grades Fail (U) or Pass (G).

The course is examined through 6 laborations.

The grade G constitutes the highest grade on the scale that will result in a pass. The grade U means that the student's performance is assessed as fail. Grading criteria for the U-G scale are communicated in writing to the student by the start of the course at the latest, as well as how the weighting and weighting of grades on individual examining elements to the final course grade takes place. The basis for the student's grade is determined by the student's fulfillment of the objectives.

Repeat examination is offered in accordance with Local regulations for courses and examination at the first and second-cycle level at Linnaeus University. An examiner can, in exceptional cases, decide that a student who is close to the level for a passing grade may carry out supplementary assignments in order to reach the passing grade.

If the university has decided that a student is entitled to special pedagogical support due to a disability, the examiner has the right to give a customised exam or to have the student conduct the exam in an alternative way.
