Prerequisites

1KU017 Historic environment education, part 1 or the first semester on the course
1KU016

Objectives

After completing the course the student will be able to:

- apply selected pedagogical methods to a project in historic environment education
- plan, carry out and evaluate a project in historic environment education
- critically discuss the aims, selected methods and outcomes of Historic Environment Education

Content

The course is an intermediate course building on 1KU017 Historic Environment Education part 1. In the course theoretical and practical knowledge about cultural heritage education will be consolidated in relation to specific projects. Students learn how to independently plan, carry out, discuss and evaluate a project in historic environment education.

Type of Instruction

Teaching is in the form of lectures, and supervision. All elements of the course will be carried out through distance learning techniques and using a digital learning platform.

Examination

The course is assessed with the grades A, B, C, D, E, Fx or F.

In order to pass the course, students need to meet the expected learning outcomes.

Examination is by written hand-in tasks and through presentation and critical discussion of a project report. The grade A constitutes the highest grade on the scale and the remaining grades follow in descending order where the grade E is the lowest grade on the scale that will result in a pass. The grade F means that the student's performance is assessed as fail.

For students who do not pass the first examinations, retake examinations are provided in accordance with local regulations at the university.

Course Evaluation

At the end of the course, a written course evaluation is performed and compiled into a report. The evaluation report is available to students and is filed and stored according to departmental regulations.

Other

Grade criteria for the A–F scale are communicated to the student through a special document. The student is to be informed about the grade criteria for the course by the start of the course at the latest.
