Prerequisites

General entry requirements and English B (Field-specific entry requirements 2/A2).

Objectives

After completing the course, the student should be able to explain and discuss the interaction between several media and modalities in artistic products.

Content

The course provides an introduction to the study of the interrelation between verbal, visual and auditory aspects of media, particularly the interaction between words, images and music in cultural products. A number of artistic products from the 19th century until today are discussed under the common heading of intermediality.

Type of Instruction

Teaching is in the form of lectures and practical exercises, both individually and in groups.

Examination

The course is assessed with the grades Fail (U), Pass (G) or Pass with Distinction (VG).

In order to receive the grade of Pass, the expected learning outcomes must be achieved. Examination forms are written and oral examinations.

For students who fail to earn a Pass grade at the first examination opportunity, a maximum of four additional examination opportunities will be provided.

Course Evaluation

At the end of the course, a written course evaluation is performed and compiled into a report. The evaluation report is available to students and is filed and stored according to departmental regulations.
