Objectives

After completing the course, the student should be able to:

- carry through sound/music productions in professional settings;
- in a critical perspective report and evaluate the connections between education in music production and professional music production;
- evaluate and discuss a report written by a class mate.

Content

The student works with music production in a professional setting: in a company (or similar) or as an entrepreneur on his/her own. During the course, the student strives towards an understanding for the problems and solutions of the professional milieus. A report completes the course. The report must have references and shall include reflections about the connections between education and professional life.

Type of Instruction

The course contains supervising and a final seminar.

Examination

The course is assessed with the grades Fail (U), Pass (G) or Pass with Distinction (VG).

In order to pass the course students need to meet the expected learning outcomes. The student's skills and abilities are assessed through a written report and a critical examination of a report written by a class mate. A resit is offered within six weeks (within the framework of regular terms) and the number of resits is limited to five (in accordance with the Higher Education Ordinance 6 chap. 21§).

Course Evaluation

When the course has finished, an evaluation is compiled. The results are reported back to students and then archived according to the rules of the School.
