

Course syllabus

Faculty of Business, Economics and Design

Department of Marketing and Tourism Studies

1RV007 Introduction to International Economic Law, Trade Law and Investment Law, 7,5 högskolepoäng

1RV007 Introduction to International Economic Law, Trade Law and Investment Law, 7.5 credits

Main field of study

Legal Science

Subject Group

Law and Legal Studies

Level of classification

First Level

Progression

G1N

Date of Ratification

Approved 2009-11-30

Revised 2022-12-05 by School of Business and Economics. Change of department. The course syllabus is valid from spring semester 2023

Prerequisites

General entry requirement

Objectives

After the course completion the student will be able to

- understand the basic principles and rules and different legal aspects of International Economic Law, Trade Law and Investment Law
- encompass the knowledge of the present and developing organisational structure at International, regional and national levels, i.e. World Trade Organisation (WTO), European Union (EU), NAFTA, ASEAN and other regional arrangements
- understand the important aspects of International Law's impact on the Globalisation's process in the economic and trade sector
- understand the conflict resolution process i.e. International Arbitration and WTO conflict resolution institutions
- apply the legal norms and principles and practices in the public and private sector

Content

Following different aspects of Economic, Trade and Investment law shall be dealt in this course:

- International Economic Law
- International Trade Law
- International intellectual property Law
- International Competition Law
- International Commercial Arbitration
- International protection of Investment
- The role and responsibility of Multinational economic entities

Type of Instruction

Lectures, seminars, discussions, simulation and the role-play. Lectures are obligatory.

Examination

The course is assessed with the grades Fail (U), Pass (G) or Pass with Distinction (VG).

Writing a seminar paper and oral presentation of it.

Results are graded using one of the terms Passed with distinction (80% -100%), Pass (60%-79%) or Fail (0%-59%), and A-F according to the ECTS scale.

Students who do not achieve a satisfactory result in the examinations are permitted to make a second attempt approximately 5-8 weeks after the normal examination date. The student will have a minimum of five occasions for written exams in relation to the syllabus to which the student was accepted. Usually 3 occasions per academic year.

Course Evaluation

A written evaluation is conducted and compiled in a report, which is filed at the department. The result and actions, if taken, are communicated to the teacher responsible for the course and presented to the students in the way most appropriate according to the teacher responsible for the course. Other types of evaluations, such as continuous during the course or oral communication with the students, can occur and is encouraged to secure continuous quality improvement.

Required Reading and Additional Study Material

Required reading

Andreas F. Lowenfeld International Economic law (2007) Oxford university press.

ISBN: 978-0-19-922694-8 (paperback)

Pages:904

Study Material Articles, international conventions and cases.

Pages:300