Prerequisites

General entry requirements for university studies.

Objectives

After completing this course the student should be able to:

- account for the main features of Swedish civil and commercial law
- find and analyse legal material that is relevant to the course, such as legal preparatory work, law and material from other legal sources
- identify the following legal fields: intellectual property law, civil law, contract law, sales law, tort law, labour law, corporate law, marketing law, real estate law as well as enforcement law and creditor rights
- solve simpler legal problems within the above mentioned legal fields

Content

The course begins with an overview of the Swedish legal system's structure and a run-through of basic legal method. Thereafter, the course contains a basic run-through of intellectual property law, civil law, contract law, sales law, tort law, labour law, corporate law, marketing law, real estate law as well as enforcement law and creditor rights. Students also receive supervision in information retrieval as regards legal source material.

Type of Instruction

The teaching consists of lectures and seminars. Dates for compulsory elements are stated in the schedule

Examination

The course is assessed with the grades A, B, C, D, E, Fx or F.
The course is examined through a written exam.

The grade A constitutes the highest grade on the scale and the remaining grades follow in descending order where the grade E is the lowest grade on the scale that will result in a pass. The grade F means that the student's performance is assessed as fail. Grading criteria for the A–F scale are communicated in writing to the student by the start of the course at the latest, as well as how the weighting and weighting of grades on individual examining elements to the final course grade takes place. The basis for the student's grade is determined by the student's fulfillment of the objectives.

Repeat examination is offered in accordance with Local regulations for courses and examination at the first and second-cycle level at Linnaeus University. An examiner can, in exceptional cases, decide that a student who is close to the level for a passing grade may carry out supplementary assignments in order to reach the passing grade.

If the university has decided that a student is entitled to special pedagogical support due to a disability, the examiner has the right to give a customised exam or to have the student conduct the exam in an alternative way.

Course Evaluation

During the implementation of the course or in close conjunction with the course, a course evaluation is to be carried out. Results and analysis of the course evaluation are to be promptly presented as feedback to the students who have completed the course. Students who participate during the next course instance receive feedback at the start of the course. The course evaluation is to be carried out anonymously.

Credit Overlap

The course cannot be included in a degree along with the following courses of which the content fully, or partly, corresponds to the content of this course: 1RV024 with 7.5 credits.
