Prerequisites

Commercial Law 1-15 credits or equivalent.

Objectives

On completion of the course, students should be able to:

- have a broader knowledge in commercial law so that they can independently identify and manage problems associated with commercial law
- identify and analyse legal issues within the particular area
- find the adequate legal rules and solve commercial law problems on the basis of legal methods
- in writing, formulate and present legal questions and solutions to problems

Content

The course is a continuation course from Commercial Law I and concentrates on rules of importance for the functioning of accounting.

The course contains a specialisation of knowledge on the Swedish property law as far as general and special contract law and corporate law goes. Within contract law, contracts are discussed in detail with help of middleman and specialised knowledge of purchase of moveable and immoveable property as well as an orientation of other types of contracts such as service, hire, leasing and contract by tender.

Furthermore, elements concerning credit and insolvency law that include a run-through of creditors' legal regulations and different forms of credit guarantees as well as knowledge of voluntary and compulsory measures in the case of financial distress and insolvency are discussed.

What is more, economic compulsory measures such as injunction to pay, seizure and attachment are discussed.

The course also includes elements comprising of criminal law's general and special parts with emphasis on property and economic crimes.

Type of Instruction

The course is an internet based course. All instruction is web and internet-based. The course requires access to a computer and internet.

Examination

The course is assessed with the grades Fail (U), Pass (G) or Pass with Distinction (VG).

The course is examined through written examinations and written presentations.

Results are graded using one of the terms Passed with distinction, Pass or Fail, and A-F according to the ECTS scale.

For the grade pass, the objectives have to be reached; the grade is based upon the degree to which the objectives are met. The weighing of the grades to the course grade is following the principles in the document "Principer för betygsrapportering dnr: ELNU 2011/160".

Students who do not achieve a satisfactory result in the examinations are permitted to make a second attempt approximately 5-8 weeks after the normal examination date. The student will have a minimum of five occasions for written exams in relation to the syllabus to which the student was accepted. Usually 3 occasions per academic year.

Course Evaluation

A written course evaluation is carried out and compiled in a report, which is archived at the faculty. The results and possible measures taken are communicated by the course coordinator and presented to the students the next time the course is given, or in another way deemed suitable by the course coordinator. Other types of course evaluations, for example regular evaluations throughout the course or discussions with students, will be included and encouraged with the aim of ensuring continuous quality development.
