Prerequisites

General entry requirements.

Expected learning outcomes

After completing the course, students should:

- have basic knowledge of modern Danish,
- be able to give a general account of the history of the Danish language,
- be able to give a general account of the most important elements in the history of Danish literature.

Content

The course provides an introduction to the Danish language. Emphasis is placed on vocabulary, pronunciation and structure. Vocabulary and language proficiency will be developed through the reading of different texts, such as significant works of fiction, and through verbal exercises. An orientation in the history of Danish is provided.

Type of Instruction

Teaching is in the form of lectures and seminars.

When the course is offered as a web-based distance course, appropriate teaching methods will be utilized.

Examination

The course is assessed with the grades Fail (U), Pass (G) or Pass with Distinction (VG).

Examination and grading is based on oral and written examinations.

A maximum of five examination opportunities will be provided.

Students at Linnaeus University are entitled to have the course grade translated into the 7-step ECTS scale. A request to have the grades translated must be made to the teacher at the start of the course.

Course Evaluation

At the end of the course, a written course evaluation is performed and compiled into a report. The evaluation report will be made available to students and will be filed and stored according to departmental regulations.
