Prerequisites

General entry requirements

Objectives

After completing the course, the students should be able to:

- express themselves in spoken and written Swedish using basic vocabulary and phrases in everyday situations,
- read and orally retell simple Swedish texts.

Content

This course includes studies of basic Swedish language structures. The main focus is on learning basic spoken and written Swedish.

Type of Instruction

Teaching is delivered in the form of lectures and exercises in speaking, listening and writing, individually and in groups.

Examination

The course is assessed with the grades A, B, C, D, E, Fx or F.

The course is examined through a written examination and oral presentations.

In order to receive the grade of pass, the student must achieve the course objectives. The grade of A is the highest grade and the grade of E is the lowest grade for passing the course. The grade of F means that the student has failed the course. The grading criteria are available in a document communicated to the students when the course starts.

Course Evaluation

At the end of the course, a course evaluation is conducted and compiled into a report, which is made available to students and filed and stored according to departmental regulations.

Credit Overlap

This course cannot be part of a degree in combination with another course in which the content fully or partly correspond to the content of this course: The course overlaps with 1SV731 at Linnaeus University.
