Prerequisites

Swedish as a foreign language, 1–7.5 credits, or the equivalent.

Objectives

After completing the course, the students should be able to

- participate in everyday, simple conversations in Swedish, with support from the interlocutor,
- use basic phrases to introduce themselves and pose and answer questions,
- read simple texts found in everyday contexts,
- write messages, greetings and similar short texts with everyday content.

Content

The course deals with basic spoken and written language use in concrete, everyday situations and personal contexts.

Type of Instruction

Teaching is delivered in the form of lectures and exercises in speaking, listening and writing, individually and in groups.

Examination

The course is assessed with the grades A, B, C, D, E, Fx or F.

The course is examined through a written examination and oral presentations.

In order to receive the grade of pass, the student must achieve the course objectives. The grade of A is the highest grade and the grade of E is the lowest grade for passing the course. The grade of F means that the student has failed the course. Grading criteria for the A–F scale are available in a separate document, communicated to the students when the course starts.

If the university has decided that a student has the right to special educational support due to a disability, the examiner may offer an adapted test or allow the student to conduct the test in an alternative form.

For students who do not pass their first examinations, retake examinations are provided in accordance with Local regulations for courses and examinations at the first and second levels at Linnaeus University.

Course Evaluation

During or shortly after the course, a course evaluation is conducted. Results and analysis of the course evaluation are promptly communicated to the students who have taken the course. Students who are taking the course when it is offered the next time are informed of the results at the start of the course. The evaluation is anonymous.
