Prerequisites

General entry requirements and German as a third (foreign) language, course B/stage 3 (field-specific entry requirements 2 with the exception of English B).

Objectives

After completing the course, the students should be able to demonstrate good language skills and communicate freely and coherently in German in various contexts.

Content

In this course the students practise oral language proficiency and pronunciation. The exercises include both formal situations, such as job interviews and customer conversations, as well as informal situations, including discussions and oral presentations of current themes. The course also discusses intercultural communication, focusing on communication problems between the German-speaking world and Sweden.

Type of Instruction

Teaching is delivered in the form of web-based lectures, seminars and discussions. Participation in scheduled web-seminars is compulsory.

Examination

The course is assessed with the grades Fail (U), Pass (G) or Pass with Distinction (VG).

The course is examined through an oral examination.

Course Evaluation

At the end of the course, a course evaluation is conducted and compiled into a report, which is made available to students and filed and stored according to departmental regulations.

Other

A stable internet connection, a new computer (not older than 4 years), and a headset with a microphone are necessary for participation in the web-seminars.
