Objectives

After completing this course, the student is expected to be able to:

- plan the internship together with the representatives of the organisation or business
- reflect critically on tourism practices in relation to personal experiences and knowledge gained during the internship
- evaluate the internships operations based on the program objectives

Content

The course consists of internship at an organisation or a business in tourism or closely related area. The workload should be equivalent to at least 10 weeks of full-time study. The student stays at the site for the internship, or carries out a project in close collaboration with the approved organisation or business.

Type of Instruction

The student will receive supervision at a distance. During the internship the student is expected to hand in progress reports. Obligatory parts are stated in the schedule.

Examination

The course is assessed with the grades A, B, C, D, E, Fx or F.
The course is examined through a reflection paper and an oral presentation.

The grade A constitutes the highest grade on the scale and the remaining grades follow in descending order where the grade E is the lowest grade on the scale that will result in a pass. The grade F means that the student's performance is assessed as fail.

After each regular examination there will be at least one new examination in close proximity to the date the results of the regular exam were posted. A minimum of five occasions for written exams will be offered in relation to the syllabus to which the student was accepted. Usually three occasions per academic year are offered. Students that fail reports can complement after instructions from the examiner to obtain a pass grade.

Grading criteria for the A–F scale are communicated in writing to the student by the start of the course at the latest, as well as how grades on separate elements of examination are weighed to a final course grade.

Course Evaluation

During the implementation of the course or in close connection to the course a course evaluation is to be carried out. Result and analysis of the course evaluation is to be presented as feedback both to the students who have completed the course and to the students who are to participate on the course the next time it is offered. The course evaluation is to be carried out anonymously.
